FPG WHISTLE-BLOWING POLICY & PROCEDURE

Purpose & Scope

First Port Global Pte Ltd (“FPG” or the “Company”) does not tolerate any malpractice, impropriety, statutory non-compliance or wrongdoing by staff in the course of their work. This Whistle-blowing Policy (“Policy”) is intended to provide a framework to promote responsible and secure whistle-blowing without fear of adverse consequences.

Employees and outside parties, such as suppliers, customers, contractors and other stakeholders, may use the procedures set out in the Policy to report any concern or complaint regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, internal controls, disclosure matters, conflict of interest, insider trading, collusion with competitors, serious breaches of Company policy, unsafe work practices or any other matters involving fraud, corruption and employee misconduct.

The Policy allows for reporting by employees or outside parties of such matters to the Management of the Company, without fear of reprisal, discrimination or adverse consequences, and also permits the Company to address such reports by taking appropriate action, including, but not limited to, disciplining or terminating the employment and/or services of those responsible.

The Policy is meant to protect genuine whistle-blowers from any unfair treatment as a result of their report. Frivolous and bogus complaints will be disregarded. The Policy is also not a route for taking up personal grievances. These should continue to be taken up directly with Department heads.

Reporting Mechanisms

The Company encourages employees and outside parties to put their names to their allegations whenever possible. Concerns or irregularities expressed anonymously are more difficult to act upon effectively but they will be considered, taking into account the seriousness and credibility of the issues raised, and the likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources and information provided. All concerns or irregularities raised will be treated with confidence and every effort will be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained throughout the process.

Concerns may be raised verbally or in writing. As it is essential for the Company to have all critical information in order to be able to effectively evaluate and investigate a complaint, the report made should provide as much detail and be as specific as possible. The complaint should include details of the parties involved, dates or period of time, the type of concern, evidence substantiating the complaint, where possible, and contact details, in case further information is required.

The contact details of the Management are as follows:

Address: 9 Yishun Industrial St. 1 #02-70/71 North Spring Bizhub Singapore 768163

Hotline : +65 6710 5480

Email : eddie.yip@firstportglobal.com (Mr Eddie Yip)

Complaints raised to other parties within the Company will be directed to the Management, who is responsible for maintaining a centralized repository of all reported cases and ensuring that issues raised are properly resolved. All matters reported will be reviewed within a reasonable timeframe, and after due consideration and inquiry, a decision will be taken on whether to proceed with a detailed investigation. Guidance/direction may be sought from the CEO and other appropriate parties. While all complaints received by the Management will be reported to the CEO, whistle-blowing complaints alleging fraud and breaches of corporate governance will be escalated to the Board of Directors.

The whistle-blower email and hotline are for reporting irregularities such as: -

- 1) Corruption and bribery
- 2) Forgery
- 3) Misappropriation of funds and classified documents
- 4) Theft
- 5) Abuse and misrepresentation of power and authority
- 6) Failure to comply with laws and regulations
- 7) Discrimination on the basis of gender, race, disabilities

Safeguards

The Company prohibits discrimination, retaliation or harassment of any kind against a whistle-blower who submits a complaint or report in good faith. If a whistle-blower believes that he or she is being subjected to discrimination, retaliation or harassment for having made a report under this Policy, he or she should immediately report those facts to the CEO. Reporting should be done promptly to facilitate investigation and the taking of appropriate action. At the appropriate time, the party making the report/complaint may need to come forward as a witness. If an employee or outside party makes an allegation in good faith but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against him or her. If, however, an employee has made an allegation frivolously, maliciously or for personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken against him or her. Likewise, if investigations reveal that the outside party making the complaint had done so maliciously or for personal gain, appropriate action, including reporting the matter to the police, may be taken.

All information disclosed during the course of investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary or appropriate to conduct the investigation and to take any remedial action, in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations.

The Company reserves the right to refer any concerns or complaints to appropriate external regulatory authorities. Depending on the nature of the complaint, the subject of the complaint may be informed of the allegations against him or her and be provided with an opportunity to reply to such allegations. Employees who fail to cooperate in an investigation, or deliberately provide false information during an investigation, shall be subject to strict disciplinary action up to, and including, immediate dismissal.

If, at the conclusion of an investigation, the Company determines that a violation has occurred or the allegations are substantiated, effective remedial action which will commensurate with the severity of the offence will be taken.
